

GCAP Speaker Submission questions:

If you prefer to review the questions beforehand, please find a list of the questions below.

Speaker Details

1. Full Name
What would you like us to call you?
2. Pronouns
Select all that apply - if you use Neo-pronouns or a different form of pronouns, please include them in the write in section.
3. Best Contact Email
This will be the email we use for all further correspondence, so make sure it's one you check frequently.
4. Company Name
If self-employed or not with a company, simply write your name again.
5. Job Title
6. Twitter Handle
7. Phone Number
Please include area codes.
8. Current State:
9. If selecting 'Outside of Australia': What Country are you in?
10. Will you be able to attend the Melbourne Event?
GCAP runs from October 7th – October 9th, at Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre. Speakers are required to attend in person at their talk.
11. Do you have any accessibility needs?
Please detail requirements below.
12. Speaker Bio
Speaker bio must be under 150 words.
This will be used on our public schedule and potential promotional material.
13. Speaker History
Tell us when and where you have spoken before (being a first-timer will not affect whether your talk is accepted).
Any other additional material to support your submission (Game credits, websites, etc) may be placed here.

14. Speaker Headshot

If you are accepted as a speaker, we require a headshot for all our schedules and social media. Please provide a link in either Dropbox, Google Drive or Sharepoint to a 1000x1000px speaker headshot, either in .png or .jpg format.

15. Bank Details

We pay all speakers $200AUD per slot after the conclusion of the conference. Please provide bank details below. If you are international, please provide your SWIFTCODE as well as a bank address.

Note: If you have two speakers, please nominate one speaker to be paid and split the payment privately.

16. Do you have a second speaker?

We do not accept panel suggestions, so will not be able to facilitate more than 2 speakers per slot.

Please note that speakers will be compensated $200 AUD per talk slot, NOT per speaker.

If yes, the speaker detail section will be repeated for the second speaker. After this, it will jump to question 17.

If no, it will jump to question 17.

17. Are you the speaker or a PR Representative?

If PR, it will jump to a section that asks for the PR representative's name, pronoun, contact email, company, phone number, and preference for contact between PR and the speaker.

If Speaker, it will jump to question 18.

Talk Details

18. Session Title

Session titles must be under 50 characters.

19. Public Description

Public Description must be under 350 words.

This is where you can outline to the audience WHY they want to come to your talk. Please provide detail in this section.

Upon acceptance of your talk submission, these details will be used for the talk description that is publicly displayed for the schedule and any marketing. While we do provide some opportunity for accepted speaker to tweak the details outlined here, it is not recommended to submit something here under the guise that it will be "updated later".

20. Session Outline

Session outline must be under 700 words.

This is where you should tell us your key talking points, data, and audience outcomes.

This is what the curation team primarily reviews when assessing your talk. We encourage you to spend time writing it. Some suggestions of things to include are what will the audience take away from this? What is the background and data backing up your point? What practical examples will you use to illustrate your point? If it's specific to a particular platform/software, please include which one.

21. Have you given this talk before?

If you have submitted it to another conference or event and it has yet to be accepted, please select 'other' and provide details.

22. If you select Yes to 42: Where and when have you given this talk?

23. What track does your talk primarily fit into?

In order to ensure our attendees are able to walk away from a session with practical take aways for their respective fields, our content curation team will preference submissions that primarily focus on a singular, deep dive topic.

Please indicate which track best describes the audience you are focusing on.

Note: If you are unsure which track is most suitable for your talk, please reach out to Sav@igea.net

24. Engine Focus

If your talk focuses on particular game engine(s), please select below.

25. Software Focus

If your talk focuses on particular software(s) (Jira, FMod, etc), please list below.

26. Platform Focus

If your talk focuses on particular platform(s) (PlayStation, Switch, etc) please select below.

27. Games Funding Focus

For talks that focus on particular funding types, please select below.

28. Business Focus

For talks that focus on business areas, please select below.

Video upload and further comments:

29. Video Upload Permission
